Committee of Forty eight Gets Ready to Hold Its Nominating Convention

WASHINGTON, June 15 .- Warren G. Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, does not intend to retire from the United States senate until his term of office expires on March 4.

whether he would resign from the senate immediately. "I do not intend to resign but intend to serve my term out. Why shouldn't I?"

"I do, however, intend to withdraw my petition filed last week in Columbus giving notice that I would be a candidate for re-election to the senate. That will be done this week." Senator Harding's friends explained today that for him to retire from the senate would endanger the narrow margin of control held by the Republicaus there as his retirement would enable Governor Cox, of Ohio, to appoint a Democrat in his place. They also said that should the senator be elected president in November he could continue to serve in the senate as he would not be inaugurated until his term as senator expires on March.

The senator was at his office early today winding up some pending sensite business. His only fixed engagement was with Leslie M. Shaw former secretary of the treasury, who called, it was understood, to discuss matters pertaining to publicity in connection with the coming campaign.
